Day 1. Duration 4h, Elevation gain : 1100-1200m+/-150m. Alt. max. :2600m, distance : 6-7km. Day 2. Duration : 6h30min, Elevation gain : 1300m+/-1400m. Alt. max. :3000m, distance : 15km.

Day 1. We will leave Geneva at 7.12am towards Valais. We will start our hike in Fionnay. It's a short hike but possible prolongation for motivated ones and we will need to save energy for the next long day. We will reach Cabane de Louvie early afternoon, will leave some stuff in the cabane and have a walk around or simply stroll around Lac de Louvie which is spectacular at all seasons and is located in a natural protected area.

Day 2. We will start our traverse towards Col de Louvie at 2915m passing through some yet little discovered places. If time allows, we will pass by the Grand Desert lakes which look different at every season. Then we will continue towards col de Prafleuri at 2900m. This 2 d involves various terrainshowever big part of it takes place on a rocky/alpine terrain. Strong physical condition and hiking motivation is mandatory for this hike.
