

INTERNATIONAL SKI CLUB OF GENEVA

MOUNTAIN FIRST AID TRAINING

SATURDAY 2022 JUNE 11 – 9:00-17:00

Dr. Michelle Wright from HealthFirst will lead a first aid course. Dr. Wright has led this course previously for the SCIG and received very good reviews.

Inscription: Tuesday May 31 or before by email at bill_larson@bluewin.ch

Price: Free for SCIG outing leaders. 30 CHF for other SCIG members to be paid on or before Tuesday May 31 to William Larson IBAN:CH65 0027 9279 C710 9135 0 or preferably TWINT 0793734686; please include your NAME and “First Aid”.
This course is underwritten by the ski club. Otherwise the price per person would be 200 CHF. Persons who inscribe, but do not attend will be charged 200 CHF for the course.

Rendezvous: Time: 8:50 for a 9:00 sharp start

Place: Pope John Parish rue Montbrillant 57, Geneva

SCIG committee member in charge: Françoise Samuel, fsamuel@bluewin.ch, 079 603 3493

Who is this course suitable for? Any person who regularly spends time in the mountains in any capacity including skiing, boarding, touring, snowshoeing, climbing, cycling, or hiking and who is interested in learning new skills or refreshing old ones. There is no requirement to have undertaken any other training in First Aid before attending this course.

Maximum participation: 12 persons

Course duration: Module 1: Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and Basic Skills - 3½ hours
Module 2: First Aid in the Mountains - 3½ hours

Both modules of the course should be completed.

Lunch: There are restaurants nearby or bring a picnic. The course will restart one hour sharp after the break starts.

Language: This course is delivered in English.

Certification: Successful candidates will receive a HealthFirst certificate of Attendance in CPR and First Aid in the Mountains. This is valid for 2 years.

