Duration: 3 – 4 hours

Easy late autumn outing in the campagne Vaudoise. First, walk up the sentier de la Morges river, then join up a path to the village of Monnaz. From there there is a spectacular view of Chateau de Vufflens. From there, descend to the river and climb back up to the Chateau. Picnic near the Chateau, then head towards the nearby village of Denens, the capital of scarecrows, where we can visit the scarecrow collection in the village. Easy return back down to Morges.

Departure by train from Geneva at 9.52. Arrival in Morges at 10.29. Return trip with demi tarif, Geneva-Morges CHF 18.6. Club tax CHF 5 for members, CHF 15 for non members.

Meeting point: front of the Morges train station, coté lac. The hike leader will be waiting for you there.
