You may wish to join my Saturday hike (Full moon over Gstaad) and stay overnight.

In Saint Petersburg in 1881, Vladimir, fiancé of Princess Fedora Romanova, is assassinated by Loris Ipanov, a suspected anarchist. Drunk with revenge, Fedora pursues the murderer to Paris and denounces him to the imperial police. But Loris reveals to her that his wife was Vladimir's mistress: victims of a common betrayal, he and Fedora fall in love. Taking refuge in Gstaad, the couple learns that Ipanov's relatives back in Russia are suffering reprisals following Fedora's denunciation. In a final sacrificial gesture, she poisons herself and dies in her lover's arms.

While Umberto Giordano's opera Fedora is on at the Grand Théâtre de Genève (12-22 December 2024) we will explore the area around Gstaad and try to find the luxurious villa where Princess Fedora and his lover lived.
